Accommodations

The master cabin is located on the main deck and spans the full beam of the yacht, providing an expansive space for the owner. It includes a chaise lounge, a large TV, a dressing table, and ample built-in storage. The master cabin also boasts a spacious en suite bathroom with double vanities, a rainfall shower, and a separate toilet room.

Below the main deck, Marin houses four additional guest cabins. There are two mirrored VIP cabins, each equipped with queen-size beds, walk-in closets, dressing tables, and en suite bathrooms featuring dual vanities and rainfall showers.

The remaining two guest cabins are versatile and can accommodate up to three guests each. These cabins have two single beds that can be combined to form a queen bed and also feature a Pullman berth for an additional guest. Each of these cabins includes a TV and an en suite bathroom with a rainfall shower.

For the crew, Marin provides accommodation for up to seven members, ensuring a high standard of service for all guests on board.

Salon and Galley

Upon entering the main salon, guests are greeted by expansive floor-to-ceiling windows on both sides, offering ample natural light and panoramic views. The decor features understated elegance, with functional furniture pieces designed for comfort and utility. A large TV, which can be concealed when not in use, is thoughtfully integrated into the space. The formal dining area, located forward of the main salon, is configured to accommodate up to 12 guests.

The galley is equipped with Miele appliances, providing reliability and efficiency in meal preparation. The layout includes extensive cold storage, with a series of refrigerators and freezers lined up along one wall, ensuring that provisions are easily accessible. Large windows over the sink area allow for natural light. A butler's pantry area offers additional prep space and contains a dumbwaiter.

In the sky lounge U-shaped seating area is complemented by a TV and ample storage. This space also features a secondary dining area, which, while more casual than the main dining room, is still suitable for formal meals. A day head with an integrated shower is included for convenience. Additionally, the sky lounge has a practical wine fridge and additional refrigeration.
